

Beaujolais &

CABARET

TAKE CENTER STAGE AT 32ND ANNUAL EVENT

HOUSTON, TX, October 5, 2015 – The producers of Beaujolais 2015, announced today that the event will take place on Thursday, November 19 at Silver Street Studios. The first pouring of Beaujolais Nouveau will set the stage for French wines, food and direct from Paris, the musical and comical talents of cabaret singer Ô de mon Chéri.

The evening will mark the worldwide release of Beaujolais Nouveau wines. Benefitting Houston's French American Chamber of Commerce, the event will feature many of the city's most distinguished chefs, gourmet foods, pop-up retail and – mai oui! French wines and spirits! C'est Si Bon!

Held in the chic urban environs of Silver Street Studios, this festive French fête is one not to be missed. Partygoers will stroll within the cool, hip artfully decorated warehouse space – filled with sleek lounge areas wine and food displays.

VIP tickets will admit purchasers one-hour earlier than main event tickets. The VIP experience will include exclusive wine tastings and caviar from Roederer USA. Special guest to include renowned Master Sommelier Virginia Philip, who will explain the nuances and flavor profile of the Beaujolais and other, featured French wines.

The food will take on a French and international flair. With lite bites that pair well with the young very drinkable Beaujolais. Chefs from Arcodoro, Artisans, Bramble, Brennan's, Etoile, Le Mistral, Springbok, TABLE on Post Oak and more will be dishing out mouthwatering morsels.

All eyes will be riveted to the stage when Ô de mon Chéri, the beautiful and bewitching French singer with a touching and sensual voice, takes the stage. Her performance has been described as an "intoxicating cocktail with songs from 1910 to now. Songs that transport you into the endless universe of love – love that hurts, saucy love or even the truest of love!"

Ticket prices are $175 for VIP and $95 for main event and can be purchased at www.beaujolais2015.com
